■ WHAT IS MEDIA PROGRAMME?

MEDIA is a funding programme of the European Union established to intensify the competitiveness of the European film, TV and new media industries and help European audiovisual products spread on an international level.

The European Union launched the latest MEDIA stage in 2007, lasting until 2013. Its primary objective is to reinforce its subventions towards the European audiovisual industry. Disposing of a budget of 755 millions Euros, MEDIA contributes to both the production and the distribution level: independent production and distribution companies can apply for development or distribution funding in the form of grants and interest free loans. The Programme co-finances expert trainings, festivals, market events and the promotion of European films. It also encourages innovation through pilot projects and facilitates the access to banking and credit establishments.

MEDIA Programme was initiated by the European Union in 1991. The different stages of its operation were the following:

1991–1995 MEDIA I

1996–2000 MEDIA II

2001–2006 MEDIA Plus

■ MEDIA 2007 (2007-2013)

Similarly to the earlier stages of MEDIA Programme, MEDIA 2007 focuses on activities before and after production. The Programme had to be adapted to technological developments and market changes to adjust to the consequences of digitisation. MEDIA 2007 was also supposed to handle the problems of audiovisual professionals in the new EU countries; it had to include innovative, targeted action in the field of digitisation as well as take measures to facilitate the access to financing for small and medium-sized businesses.

→MEDIA 2007

New objectives:

- to contribute to the development of a business culture in the sector and to facilitating private investment.
- to reduce imbalances between European countries with high audiovisual production capacity and countries with low production capacity or a restricted linguistic area (conforming to the need to preserve and enhance cultural diversity and intercultural dialogue in Europe)
- to increase the circulation of European audiovisual works inside and outside the European Union

■ WHO CAN PARTICIPATE IN MEDIA ?

MEDIA is open to all the European professionals of the audiovisual industry (production and new media companies, sales agents, distributors, festival and market organisers, training providers and exhibitors), established in 27 European Union member countries as well as in Croatia, Iceland, Norway, Lichtenstein and Switzerland.

A special attention is paid to countries disposing of a low production capacity and/or a limited geographical and linguistic zone (all the member states except for UK, France, Spain, Germany and Italy).

■ HOW TO GAIN ACCESS TO MEDIA SUBVENTIONS?

The calls for proposals are published regularly in the Official Journal of the European Union. They are available on the official website of the MEDIA PROGRAMME (<http://ec.europa.eu/media>) and the MEDIA Desk sites in each country respectively. One can also get further information and technical assistance at the Desks.

■ WHAT DOES MEDIA OFFER?

Independent production and distribution companies can apply for development or distribution funding in the form of grants and interest free loans. Financial assistance is available for training providers and organisers of markets and festivals. Individuals may also benefit from subsidised places on training courses and international markets.

In all of the above cases, MEDIA offers subventions that cover 50% maximum of the budgets concerned (60% exceptionally).

■ WHAT IS THE SELECTION PROCESS LIKE?

Deadlines for the various schemes are scheduled throughout the year. You can download guidelines and application forms from the site or contact your local MEDIA Desk.

The application has to be sent to the MEDIA Education, Audiovisual and Culture Executive Agency (EACEA) which makes the selection with the help of external experts. The final selection is approved by the European Commission and Parliament.

■ WHO IS THE MEDIA CONTACT IN HUNGARY?

MEDIA is represented by an information office in Budapest. You can find further details on the website:

www.mediadeskhungary.eu

Contact: info@mediadeskhungary.eu
